

Appendix B – Online survey

As part of London TravelWatch's consideration, an online survey was open for three weeks between 20 September 2018 and 15 October 2018. 3,400 responses were received.

The online survey included both closed questions with suggested answers and questions which passengers were able to respond to with free text. The responses detailing the number of respondents per station and response to the demographic questions are reported below.
